Quiet Period

Coaches are not allowed to leave college campus to recruit or evaluate. Telephone & electronic communication is allowed. High School students are allowed to make on-campus visits. Coaches may attend clinics. State Testing Dates.

Dead Period

No contact with athlete or legal guardians, relatives, or any individual affiliated with the prospective athlete on or off campus. No official or unofficial visits are allowed. Telephone and electronic communication is allowed.

Contact Period

Coaches may recruit and evaluate off of the college campus. In-person contact is allowed. During this period, only one contact is allowed per school, per week. Any face-to-face contact constitutes the one single contact for that high school for the week. A week officially spans from Sunday at midnight through the next Sunday at midnight.

In District Only

No contact with athlete or legal guardians, relatives, or any individual affiliated with the prospective athlete, on or off campus except for those that reside within the district boundaries of the college. All telephone and electronic communication is prohibited during this time except for in-district athletes.
